RE: NAFEC Lunch & Learn

The Native American Federal Employees Council is sponsoring a Lunch & Learn on November 9, 2004. The event will be held 11:30 am - 1:30 at the downtown Marriott/Muehlbach Hotel, Colonial Ballroom.

The NAFEC strives to present progressive, educational events for government employees to promote better understanding of Native American issues. The event is composed of a mixture of elements: a guest speaker (on current or historical issues), an open forum for discussion, cultural information (displays, artwork, dance, etiquette and music), etc. This year's theme is "Uniting the Spirit."

The price of the Lunch & Learn is $35.00 and includes limited free parking. Preregistration is required and must be submitted by October 25, 2004. All special requests, i.e., special meals must be made in writing and submitted along with the registration form to the FEB office by the registration deadline.

The Federal Executive Board accepts Purchase Orders and Training Forms (please be sure Order #'s are included on forms), personal checks and money orders. Visa and MasterCard are also accepted.
